

Ariel Solose

Associate | Vancouver

ariel.solose@blakes.com

Vancouver: 604-631-4608

Ariel practises commercial litigation with a focus on complex contractual disputes and multi-party construction law matters. Ariel works with clients to manage all issues relating to commercial disputes, including negotiation, mediation, arbitration, and trial and appellate advocacy. She also regularly advises clients on strategy and risk management.

Ariel has represented clients in a wide range of industries, including construction, manufacturing, real estate development, mining, and financial services. Ariel has appeared as counsel in the provincial and superior courts of British Columbia, as well as before the Supreme Court of Canada.

SELECT EXPERIENCE

- Counsel in a lengthy arbitration dispute involving claims for delay, disruption, and breach of contract in connection with the construction of significant energy infrastructure
- Representing clients in builders' lien disputes and claims for breach of contract, cost overruns, and project delay
- Counsel for a major North American building supplier, defending a claim that the materials supplied to a British Columbia mine were defective
- Representing and advising clients in contaminated sites litigation
- Counsel in shareholder proceedings involving allegations of oppression and breach of fiduciary duty
- Representing clients in disputed corporate transactions and related injunction proceedings

EDUCATION

Osgoode Certificate in Construction Law - 2017

Admitted to the British Columbia Bar - 2015

J.D., University of British Columbia Faculty of Law - 2014

B.A., University of Saskatchewan - 2011