Blakes Women in Competition Law

The Blakes Competition, Anitrust & Foreign Investment group is widely acknowledged as the leading competition and foreign investment review practice in Canada. We work closely with clients to secure approvals for their transactions and facilitate their strategic objectives in compliance with the Competition Act and Investment Canada Act.

Globally recognized: Members of our group are recognized globally as leading lawyers in Chambers Canada: Canada's Leading Lawyers for Business, Chambers Global: The World's Leading Lawyers for Business, Global Competition Review's GCR 100, Who's Who Legal, The Legal 500, The Canadian Legal Expert Directory and Benchmark Canada.

Active leaders: Julie Soloway is a founding member of Canadian Women in Competition Law. She has also served on the American Bar Association (ABA) Section of Antitrust Law (SAL) leadership for over 15 years and was recently appointed co-chair of the inaugural Foreign Investment and National Security Committee. Cassandra Brown is Secretary of the Canadian Bar Association (CBA) Competition Law and Foreign Investment Review's Executive Committee.
